

NATIONAL NQM QUILT MUSEUM

Peacock Hoedown by Laurie Tigner

AQS QUILTWEED PADUCAH

The National Quilt Museum

Celebrating Quilt Art in America's Quilt City

Each spring, thousands of quilt enthusiasts from around the world travel to Paducah, Kentucky, for AQS QuiltWeek Paducah, one of the most celebrated quilting events in the world.

During QuiltWeek, The National Quilt Museum welcomes visitors eager to experience exceptional exhibitions and explore one of the world's finest collections of contemporary quilt art.

A Shared Legacy

The National Quilt Museum was founded by Bill and Meredith Schroeder, founders of the American Quilter's Society, whose vision helped establish Paducah as an internationally recognized quilting destination.

Since opening in 1991, the Museum and QuiltWeek have helped transform Paducah into a center for creativity, education, and cultural tourism.

During QuiltWeek, Visitors Experience

- Rotating exhibitions
- Collection galleries
- Artist talks
- Special programs
- Museum Store shopping
- Educational opportunities
- Community celebrations

International Audience

QuiltWeek visitors travel from all 50 states and numerous countries, creating a unique gathering that celebrates artistry, craftsmanship, and community.

The National Quilt Museum

215 Jefferson Street

Paducah, Kentucky 42001

270.442.8856

quiltmuseum.org

Honoring Today's Quilters. Inspiring Future Generations.

